Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year B

Old Testament: Wisdom 7: 7-11 (Lectionary #143)

“I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.
 I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her;
 because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.
 Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light,
 Because the splendor of her never yields to sleep.
 Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.”

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year B New Testament: Hebrews 4: 12-13 (Lectionary #143)

“Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.”

Gospel: Mark: 10: 17-30 (Lectionary 143)

“As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him and asked him:

‘Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’

Jesus answered him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone.

You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal;

You shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother.’

He replied and said to him, ‘Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth.’

‘You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have,

and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’

A that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, ‘How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’

The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, ‘Then who can be saved?’

Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.’”
