FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—YEAR B

New Testament: 1 Corinthians 7: 32-35 (Lectionary #71)

“Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties.
 An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.
 A married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided.
 An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy.
 A married woman is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
 I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.”

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—YEAR B

Gospel: Mark 1: 21--28 (Lectionary #71)

“The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.
 All were amazed and asked one another, ‘What is this? A new teaching with authority.
 He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him.’
 His fame spread everywhere through the whole region of Galilee.”
