6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER—YEAR B

First Reading: Acts 10: 25-26, 34-35, 44-48 (Lectionary #56)

“Then Peter said, ‘In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.

Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.’

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word.

The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God.

The Peter responded: ‘Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?’

He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus.”

“Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God;
everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.

Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love.

God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him.

In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.”

“Jesus said: ‘As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.

...Love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.

You are my friends if you do what I command you.

I call you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father.

It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you.

This I command you: love one another.”
