Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch, says the Lord of hosts.
But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—YEAR C*New Testament: 2 Thessalonians 3: 7-12 (Lect. #159)

Brothers and sisters: You know how one must imitate us.

For we did not act in a disorderly way among you, nor did we eat food received from anyone.

On the contrary, in toil and drudgery, night and day, we worked, so as not to burden any of you. Not that we do not have the right.

Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.

In fact, when we were with you, we instructed you that if anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat.

We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of theirs.

Such people we instruct and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and to eat their won food.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—YEAR C

Gospel: Luke 21: 5-19 (Lectionary #159)

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, “All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.”

Then they asked him, “Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?”
He answered, “See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying,
‘I am he,’ and ‘The time has come.’ Do not follow them!

When you hear of wars and insurrections, don’t be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end.”
Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky.

“Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony.
Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, first I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute.

You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death.
You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed.
By your perseverance you will secure your lives.”
