BAPTISM OF OUR LORD—YEAR COld Testament: Isaiah 41: 1-4, 6-7 (Lectionary #21)

Thus says the Lord: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit;
 he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting, not making his voice heard in the street.
 A bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth;
 the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the Lord, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand;
 I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

BAPTISM OF OUR LORD—YEAR C

Old Testament: Isaiah 40: 1-5, 9-11 (Lectionary #21)

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God.

Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end, her guilt is expiated;
indeed, she has received from the hand of the Lord double for all her sins.

A voice cries out: In the desert prepared the way of the Lord!

Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!

Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain shall be made low;
the rugged land shall be made a plain, the rough country a valley.

Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all peoples shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Go up on a high mountain, Zion, herald of glad tidings; cry out at the top of your voice, Jerusalem, herald of good news!

Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God!

He comes with power the Lord God, who rules by a strong arm; here is his reward with him, his recompense before him.

Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying:

“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.

You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power.

He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

BAPTISM OF OUR LORD—YEAR C

New Testament: Titus 2: 11-14; 3: 4-7 (Lectionary #21)

Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good.

When the kindness and generous love of God our savior appeared, not because of any righteous deeds we had done but because of his mercy, he saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life.

BAPTISM OF OUR LORD—YEAR C

Gospel: Luke 3: 15-16, 21-22 (Lectionary #21)

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ.
John answered them all, saying, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming.
I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.”

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him, in bodily form like a dove.
And a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”
