

LIST #1: Books We Recommend to Begin Your Library

The following books are excellent resources to begin laying the foundation of your ministry. They are solid representations of the cantor's ministry, liturgy, psalmody, and spirituality. We recommend that you begin with Diana Kodner's Handbook for Cantors.

	Brueggemann, Walter. Praying the Psalms. Winona, MN: Saint Mary's Press, 1993. Although this book is out of print, it is a classic in psalm study. It is well worth it if you can acquire a library or used copy.
	Brueggemann, Walter. Spirituality of the Psalms. Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 2001.
	Edwards, Tilden. Living in the Presence: Disciplines for the Spiritual Heart. San Francisco: Harper & Row, 1995.
	Hansen, James with Melanie Coddington and Joe Simmons. Cantor Basics, Revised Edition (forthcoming). Portland: The Pastoral Press.
	Huck, Gabe. Liturgy with Style and Grace. Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, 1984.
	Kodner, Diana. Handbook for Cantors, Revised Edition. Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, 1997.
	Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy. Music in Catholic Worship. Washington, DC: USCC, 1983.
